At Home Around The Hearth

It's hard sometimes to understand
The difference in a day and a year
And the ease that we're familiar with
Is only part of what has brought us here.

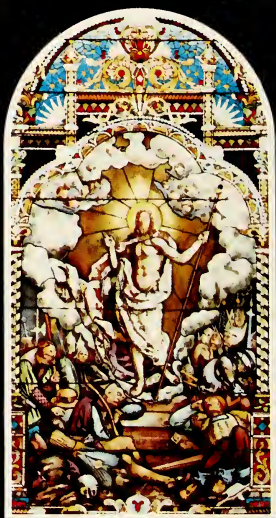

The past is sometimes present
The future mixed within
A day becomes a second
And soon it's time to wind the clock again.

Distinguishing the differences
And knowing that the years were made of days
Acknowledging the friendships
Aware that they're what made it hard to phrase.

And though it's hard to understand
We understand that once more we must start
Knowing that we share the days
We spent together at home around the hearth.

— Bryan F. McFarland

Monday morning the shower's cold
And I'm wishing I was home
Breakfast comes and once again
I'm wishing I was home
About the time when classes begin
I start to wonder why
Why it is I wish I was home
Why leave this all behind?

Tuesday morning the shower's warm
And I'm wishing I was asleep
Monday seemed like a wasted day
Cause all I did was sleep
But today I need to settle down
And work that problem out
And tell myself to realize
That's what life's all about.

SCO

Wednesday morning the eggs are cold
And I'm wishing they were warm
One more time I'll force them down
And wish that they were warm
And CIV will not meet today
Just one more week to go
Before a chance to learn about
Some things I want to know.

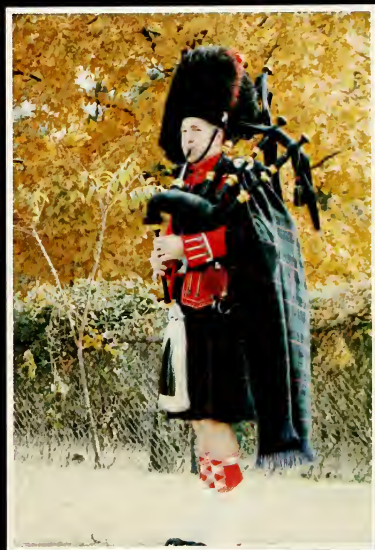

Thursday morning my head is warm
 And I'm wishing I was well
 I need to get some good ole rest
 And study just as well
 The choir will be short a voice today
 But my ears will both be there
 To try to gain some knowledge from
 The notes that fill the air.

HOMECOMING

Friday morning my feet are cold
 Short sheeted once again
 I find the blanket on the floor
 Where it certainly shouldn't have been
 Another week of classes are gone
 Time for fun and studies too
 But it's hard sometimes to study them
 With all there is to do.

Saturday morning the sun is warm
 My late sleep wish came true
 And now my stomach calls to me
 It needs attention too
 A ride into the mountains today
 Or a day at the library
 Between these two, I must find one
 Some times it's hard for me.

Sunday morning I feel warm inside
 I visit God's house today
 I ask for guidance thru the week
 And to be thankful every day
 All through the week I need to stop
 And give thanks to the One above
 Thanks for all You've given me
 And thank You for Your love.

But home is here all around me
It's where I've been all along
Where the mountains live and the forests call
I know I haven't gone wrong.

A black and white photograph of a building facade, heavily covered in ivy. The ivy is dense and textured, covering most of the walls. Several arched windows are visible, some with decorative frames. The lighting is bright, creating high contrast between the dark ivy and the lighter background. The overall mood is classic and somewhat mysterious.

FACULTY AND STAFF

Dr. Wayne Anderson assumed office as the eighth president of Maryville College on July 1, 1977, at the age of 39. He brings to the position an extensive background in administration and a deep commitment to independent higher education. He was also appointed in 1977 as professor of political science at the College.

At this time, Dr. Anderson serves as the Vice Chairman of both the Tennessee Independent Colleges Fund and the Tennessee Council of Private Colleges and as the President of the Mid-Appalachia Colleges Council, Inc. He is a member of the executive committee of the Presbyterian Colleges' Union as well as the Board of Directors of the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra and a former member of the Board of the Blount County Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he belongs to various regional and national professional groups, including the American Political Science Association.

Dr. Anderson earned a B.A. degree in 1959 from the University of Minnesota in his home state, majoring in political science. He received a Master of Public Affairs degree in 1961 from the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs of Princeton University. In 1974, he earned the Ph. D. degree in government from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., with his dissertation on the White House staff of President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Dr. Anderson is the force behind the Toward Century III Program. His job is a thankless one, but we, the students, would like to take this opportunity to say "THANKS", and that we do appreciate his dynamic efforts on behalf of Maryville College.

SENIOR CANDIDS

"Sure, years from now we'll look back at our years at MC with fond memories. I can see some of those memories now as I live them.

But Maryville College will be more than just a bunch of reminiscences, more than just a collection of quotes and photographs in an annual. MC has given us all much more than these - perhaps more than we'll ever know. It has given us a way of looking at others, ourselves ... "

-Tom Hudson

"Maryville College means a great deal to me academically and socially. Academically it means dedication, responsibility, hard work, timing, and luck. Socially it means maturing and fostering lifelong friendships."

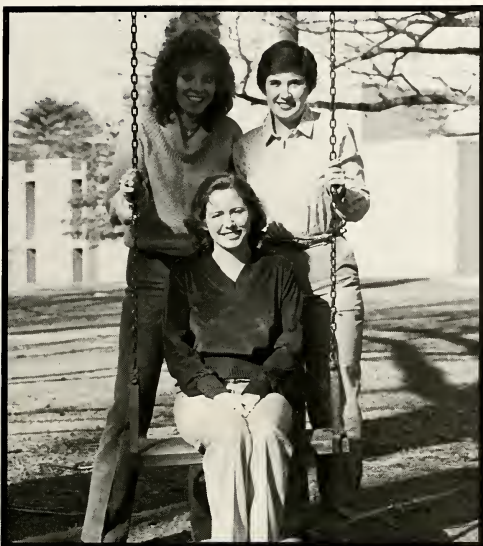

-Tim Fitzgerald

"I leave with direction, set upon a chosen path. I have seen myself evolve through learning - in the halls of study, in the company of friends, and in the shadow of mountains."

-Michael Weiss

"Maryville: New experiences from which to grow, special friends that mean so much; a smiling face in troubled times.

Maryville: an experience we all share and will remember fondly."

-Carol J. Carter

"Maryville College has provided me with new experiences, challenges, friendships, and personal growth. Now that my four years are coming to an end, it is time to move on, but the memories I have of Maryville College will be everlasting."

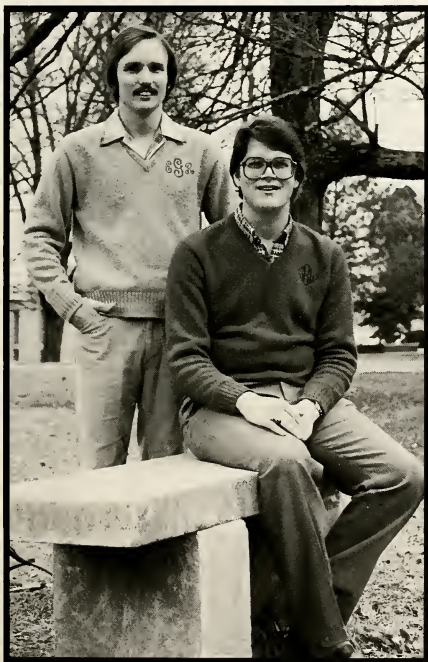

-Mary Jane Babich

"As an entering freshman, all I wanted was to be an upperclassman and to be able to see the end. Now as a graduating senior, I look back at freshman year and wonder: what was so bad that comps, independent study, and graduation could have actually looked good to me?"

-Russell Gibson

"After four years at Maryville College filled with good times, good friends, hard studying and hard work, I can look back and say ... it's all been great. The experiences and friendships I have developed here will carry me through a lifetime ... a lifetime in which I shall always look back to Maryville with the deepest and happiest of memories."

-Janet Helwig

"... a lot of work, a lot of play; a lot of laughter, a lot of tears; a lot of emotions, a lot of carefree times; a lot of growth, a lot of set backs; a lot of caring, a lot of love ... cherished experiences placed into memory."

-Donna M. Czegledi

"I am a bear of very little hair and long words bother me' was my quote from high school. Fortunately, my college years have proved that the hair is only as small as you limit it to be."

-Brad Goar

"It has been said that 'we must resemble each other a little in order to understand each other, but we must be a little different to love each other.'"

-Barbara Stansbury

The Class Of 1982

"The four years we have spent at Maryville have helped direct us toward the kinds of lives we would like to lead and the goals we would like to pursue. With the challenges, successes, failures, and discoveries we have encountered, we have been able to evaluate ourselves and emerge as individuals whose horizons have been broadened and whose characters have been strengthened. These have been four very special years."

GREAT SCOTS

Presidential Scholars

Under the direction of Dr. Charlotte Beck, the P.S. program will graduate its first class this year. The program originally designed to give scholarships to academic high achievers, has developed into a fellowship organization that promotes cultural and scholastic excellence. Along with their faculty advisors, the Presidential Scholars are treated to trips, concerts, and monthly luncheons in Proffitt Dining Room.

Playmakers

First Row: Tim Fitzgerald, Ruth Wilgus, Tracey DePue, Frank Fiore, Kathy Long. Second Row: Jean Plant, Tom Hudson, George Cassutto.

Playmakers - This group is composed of some of MC's most talented students and is directed by Sharon Crane. The Playmakers provide both on and off campus entertainment in the form of singing, dancing, and presentation of short plays. The group is one of Maryville's most positive recruiting tools.

Messiah

Each year the college and community come together to perform Handel's Messiah. This spectacular event is directed by the college choir director and includes the choir, MAC-CO, and many members of the community. Many hours of practice make this the event of the fall season.

1981 Homecoming Queen and Court

During halftime of the Southwestern-Maryville game, Mary Jane Babich was crowned 1981 Homecoming queen. Other candidates were Donna Czegledi, escorted by Brad Goar; Janet Helwig, escorted by Bill Dent; Vanessa Logan, escorted by Don Rufus; and Julia Wickstrand escorted by Jim Pearce.

All College Council - The ACC is the equivalent of a Student Council, except the ACC works to involve all members of the college community. Composed of students, faculty, and staff, it is chaired by President Anderson with Bill Dent serving as Co-Chairman. Three major committees work under the ACC: The Academic Life Council, Student Life Council, and the Religious Life Council. Through these committees, the college is made a more democratic community equally for students, faculty, and staff.

"It has been an honor to serve my fellow students as Co-Chairman of the All College Council this year. Serving on the ACC has helped me to gain an understanding of responsibility and all the commitments that come with it. As Co-Chairman, I would like to thank everyone who has devoted their time to serving and working on the ACC this year. Thank you all for a great year and an unforgettable learning experience."

Photos, faces, quotes, places. That's what this yearbook is. At least now. But it becomes more. It becomes something that prods memories and reminiscences - something that ties now and then, then and now, together. It's the closest thing one can get to a slice of life between two covers.

As with any book, there are numerous credits to be given. In order that nobody is forgotten, credit is due: to Melissa Parks for work on directing; to Kelly Layman for classes; to John Varney and Margaret Andrews for layout and staff, and to Lisa Swisher for layout. A yearbook is a staff product, and credit is due to the entire staff for a job well done.

MC Playhouse

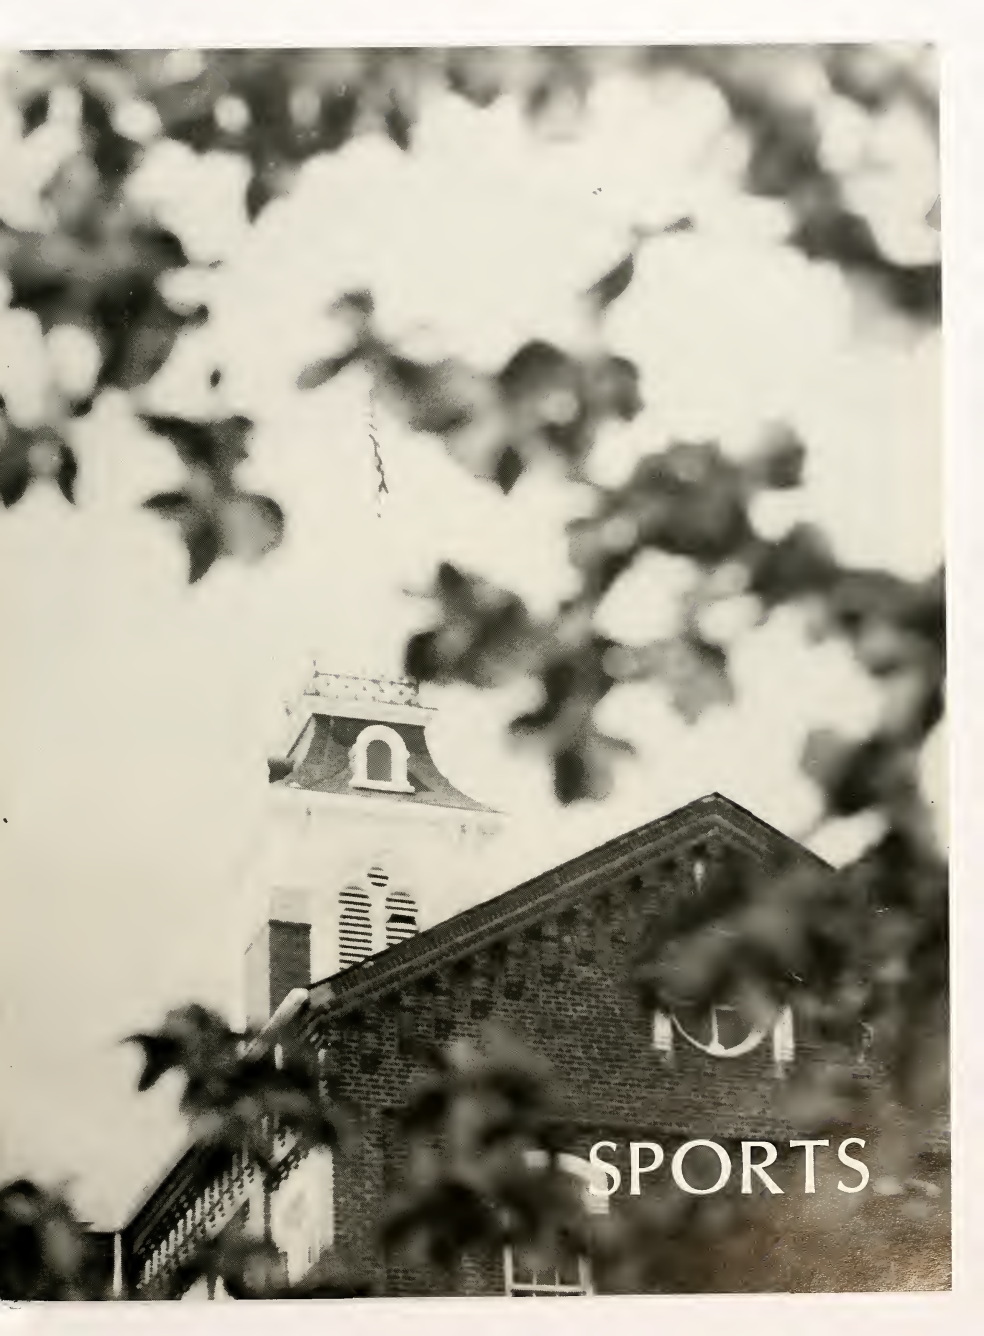

Whose Life Is It Anyway?

The Cast of A Midsummer Night's Dream

Under the direction of Don Thomas, the MC Playhouse presented three major productions in 1981-82. The Fall production of Whose Life Is It Anyway? featured Kathy Long in the leading role. Winter term's production, A Midsummer Night's Dream, worked to involve numerous campus members through acting, set design, and technical work. The Pirates of Penzance was chosen for the Spring production and promised to keep the spirit of theatre alive at Maryville College.

SPORTS

HOW ABOUT THEM LADY SCOTS!

First Row: Mari Jennings, Kandy Schram, Kay Julian, Tammy Williams. Second Row: Manager Brian Rigell, Bonnie Dobson, Robin Rimmer, Rachel Reese, Donna Owens, Deanna Chapman, Coach Sharon Brown.

NOTES FROM THE COACH:

MC -

1. Finished #10 in nation in NCAA Division III;
2. Traveled to Stevens Point, Wisconsin, for Regional competition. Lost to Occidental College from Los Angeles, California, in first game;
3. Held first ever NCAA Division III Final Four Championships at MC. First place went to University of California at San Diego; second place went to Occidental; third place went to Juniata; and fourth place went to Illinois Benedictine.

COACH'S COMMENTS: MC made the transition well from having lost two starting seniors from the previous year. We had good victories over UT Chattanooga, Austin Peary, and MTSU, and we're not afraid to play the best. Only Division III losses were to Bryan and Radford. The other ten losses came to Division I and Division II Schools.

For a team that graduates only two seniors, the 1981 Fighting Scots Football team had a remarkable season. Captains Keith Martin, Jon Watson, and Dave Evans led the talented, young Scot team to a 5-4-1 record. Their ability to fight back when all seemed hopeless earned them a 2nd place finish in the Old Dominion Athletic Conference behind Washington and Lee (although both teams had identical conference records, Washington and Lee outscored Maryville 14-12 in their regular season game). The never-say-die attitude of the Scots enabled them to come from behind three different times against Hampton-Sydney to finally overtake the Tigers 35-21. Trailing Emory and Henry 0-10 going into the final period, the Scots once again proved themselves worthy of their nail-biting fans by mounting two scoring drives in the 4th quarter to prevail 14-10. And the Scots endeared themselves to the homecoming crowd when once again, trailing Southwestern 3-21 after three quarters, they fought back to a 24-24 tie capped by Gene Wheatley's miraculous catch in the end zone with 24 seconds left in the game and Pat O'Brien's two-point conversion pass to Chuck Angelus. Finally the freshman dominated Scots gained valuable experience by playing nationally ranked teams like West Georgia, Depauw University, and Millaps. For their superior play, five members of the Fighting Scots were named 1st Team All-Conference. These were Receiver Gene Wheatley, Offensive Guard Doug Knight, Defensive Tackle Alex Albert, Linebacker Ed Bell, and Bob McQuade at Defensive Back. Those named to the 2nd Team were, offensively: Dave Evans, Mike Kraitsch, Mike Scott, Tony Fletcher, Pat O'Brien, and Chuck Angelus... defensively: John Cockfield, Jeff Carleoneau, and Jeff Skipper. Of these 14 All-Conference players, only one is lost to graduation. Look out next season.

Last year the Scots posted an impressive record of 15-11. This was the most wins in thirty years. The 81-82 line up contains no seniors but despite its inexperience, Coach Lambert sees the team's strengths as depth, team speed, and amazing shooting abilities.

Beth Neil - Senior

1981 marked the beginning of the first official women's soccer club in MC history. According to the founder, Beth Neil, the players were "loyal, devoted, and improved greatly with each match." Their potential began to show toward the end of the season, as the scores indicate. The club was self-supporting through doughnut sales and aluminum can collections. They truly appreciated the support of their fans. We're proud of you, ladies!

Zerick, Daniel

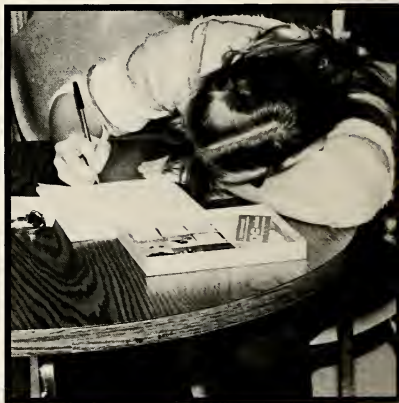

My years at Maryville have been very special to me. While at Maryville, I have been able to realize the true meaning of life. I have grown in many ways. I will always regard these four short years as the beginning of a successful life.

In serving as editor of the Chilhowean, I have also grown in many ways. Learning all about Maryville, working with all kinds of people, and acquiring a sense of school pride are just a few of the benefits. I have been able to see exactly how the entire Maryville College Community works.

The 1982 Chilhowean is a product of many long and hard hours of work. To say the least, it is the product of many contributors. Tremendous gratitude goes to Kay for her positive attitude and willingness to work; also to Russell for his dependability and supportive attitude. Lesa was a great asset in photography. As for Swisher, thanks for everything. A special thanks goes to Mike Boyatt for the use of his photography in the opening section, and to Sandy Stephens for typing the index. Finally, thanks also goes to Mrs. Brennan for her words of support and guidance.

This yearbook is produced for the Maryville College Community. I hope that it will always be a source for remembering the yesterdays. The todays and tomorrows are meant for living, but the yesterdays are ours to treasure.

Editor

Our lives began only yesterday.
Yet today, we are full-grown.
As for what tomorrow holds —
Our hopes and dreams will be our guide.
